Winter Breaks in The Kyles

Many of you only visit The Kyles in the summer season but it is worth knowing that off season is, to many, the best season for views and walking etc. We do not get hard winters thanks to the Gulf Stream, Midges are sleeping and the views are fantastic with lovely rich red sunsets making ideal walking conditions. I love photography and the best time is off season particularly the Autumn and late Winter to early spring. The colours are amazing and with ever green trees, there is not that bleak winter you get in most places. You may not want to go sailing but I can assure you some folk do, never a weekend goes past without a sailing boat going by, but walking is a great pastime in the winter. The area has recently re-opened many walks including The Cowal Way and continues to upgrade and open new walks. For more information on our weekend breaks call us on 01700 811464

New Year and Christmas

Hogmanay in Tighnabruaich is usually a bit of a marathon if you play by the locals rules! They start Around the 30th and go on to the 4th! Well most of us can't keep up with that but it is a great time of year in Tighnabruaich with a fantastic Ceilidh on the 1st in the evening which is really worth saving yourself for. Christmas is so fantastic here, relaxed and peaceful, an outstanding place to be with your family. Call now for availability. 01700 811464

Booking On-line www.holidays-argyll.co.uk

Our website has been developed by me over the past few years and to be frank is looking a little unprofessional. So we will be launching a new look website, still easy to use and to the point but with some added functionality including Online Booking. This will allow you to book online or check availability. We will still be at the end of the phone for a manual booking should you require though. The web address will remain the same as it is now and you can expect to see it live in December 2005

Micro News

Next year there is going to be more to do, with the introduction of Yacht Charters and fishing/boat trips from the pier. Also there is talk of off road go-carts too!

Beauty Weekends in the Lovely Kyles

In conjunction with The Royal Hotel, Holidays Argyll offer Beauty weekends to suit you!

Either staying at the top quality boutique hotel, The Royal, or staying in one of our self catering homes. This break can offer the luxury of a top Health Farm but with the added bonus of the beauty of Tighnabruaich. Joanne of The Treatment Room offers first class professional treatments from Aromatique Facials to Manicures to Full Body Massages. Joanne has extensive experience in Beauty, training at Champneys and then running one of Yorkshires most successful salons until finally settling in Tighnabruaich. Remember this package can be tailored to suit you, so from full days of pampering to maybe a massage after a lovely walk just before Dinner at the Royal.

To suit you!

Micro News

Holidays Argyll have an office in the village, we offer broadband Internet access and other office services to our customers. (Have a working break!)

Feedback

We have introduced more stringent requirements on the home owners to give you a better holiday experience, to continue to improve the homes we need your feedback on how we can make the homes and your holiday better.

Your holiday experience is important to us so that we continue to grow so we would like your feedback on our service and the area such as Café's and Restaurants. With this information we can alter our business to better serve you. Attached is a form that we would like you to fill in honestly, in return we will enter you in to a draw for a Beauty experience at the Treatment Room worth over £100.

Many Thanks for reading this and we hope to see you soon.
